THE PIGSKIN KNIGHTS ARE AGAIN LOOSE

All Eyes Are Centered On The State Case Game.

Wesleyan Meets Athens on the Latter's Field Today.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, September 29.—The football season opened in the middle west today with scattering games of minor importance. None of the "big ten" eleven, with exception of Ohio State, winners of the Western Conference Championship last season, and Indiana, has games scheduled for today.

The game between Ohio State and Case at Columbus is expected to reveal the strength of the Ohio squad.

The Eleven has not been seriously crippled through loss of players who have enlisted, and with Chic Harley, All American halfback, in the game, is regarded as a strong contender for championship honors again this season.

Indiana faced Franklin at Bloomington and Notre Dame has Ripon as its opponent at Notre Dame.

Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio University met at Athens, other games brought together Kenyon and Wooster, Denison and Otterbein.

WRANGLE RENEWED IN HOUSE

Letter from Secretary Lansing Is Read.

No Evidence Against Congressmen in Possession of Department.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, September 29.—The German "slush fund" wrangle broke out again on the floor of the House today with the presentation of a letter by Chairman Howe of the Rules committee, from Secretary Lansing, declaring the State Department had no evidence indicating that members of Congress had any connection with the $50,000 fund.

Secretary Lansing wrote: "In respect to your inquiry today addressed to the Department, I beg to inform you that the Department has no evidence that could in any way connect a member of Congress with payment of money which the German Embassy sought to spend."

Mr. Lansing then quoted from his statement of September 22 saying that he did not see how the request of von Bernstorff for permission to spend $50,000 reflects upon Congress.

As soon as the letter was read, Representative Norton of North Dakota, and others demanded recognition.

AMERICAN WINS THE WAR CROSS

John McClain, of Dayton, Rewarded for Bravery.

(By Associated Press Cable)

Paris, September 29.—The first American soldier to win the war cross with the palm is John McClain, of Dayton, Ohio, says the Paris Herald. On the night of September 18 a German airplane flew over the village in which was dropped several bombs. One fell within 15 feet of a building around which some 50 villagers had gathered.

Notwithstanding the warning, the newspaper continues, Private McClain dashed out into the road and discovering the bomb with the aid of a pocket lamp, picked it up and hurled it into the river. The projectile exploded as it struck the water.

Private McClain is 24 years old and has been in the army 4 years and seen service in Mexico.

HAIG'S BRIEF REPORT CAUSES SPECULATION

Military Observers at the Front Seem at Sea Over Probability.

Many Believe Big Events Are Pending.

Comparative Quiet on French Front, Too.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Field Marshal Haig is extremely laconic in his dispatch today from the British front in France and Belgium. "Nothing to report except the usual artillery activity," is the essence of it.

The warnings yesterday from the newspaper correspondents at the front that nothing need be expected from them, read in this connection, tends to create an air of tenseness with the possibility of big events pending.

Military observers not on the ground seem at sea over the possibilities.

The interval since Wednesday's big attack appears too short for the launching of another big drive in Flanders and there has been no visible signs of preparation for a drive in any other sector.

The comparative quiet which has prevailed on the French front is continuing. Only the artillery has been active, chiefly in the Verdun region. East of the Meuse in this sector, however, the gunfire reached a violent pitch last night.

SIX ARE DEAD IN STEEL PLANT STRIKE RIOTS.

Foreman And Five Men Killed When Gas Explodes.

Red-Hot Furnace Ignited Fumes Of Escaping Gas.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Gary, Indiana, September 29.—Six men met death in the plant of the United States Steel Corporation here today as an indirect result of the strike of switchmen in the local yards of the C. J. & E. railway.

Because of the strike there has been a shortage of material and as a result one of the furnaces became clogged. A foreman took a gang of five men into the furnace to clean it. A gas valve gave way and the foreman and his five workmen met death. It is thought one of the workmen struck the valve and broke it.

PAIR BOUND OVER FOR THE THEFT OF FORD AUTOMOBILES

Returning from Hillsboro with Kirby Henderson, colored, in tow, Chief Moore late Friday evening escorted Henderson before Mayor Oster to answer to a charge of stealing a Ford automobile from the Superintendent of the Sabina schools while the machine was standing on the street in this city some two weeks ago.

Henderson, who had been caught in Hillsboro with the stolen machine in his possession, had little defense to offer, and, realizing this, he promptly entered a plea of guilty and was held to the grand jury in the sum of $500, which he could not furnish.

Friday evening Jacob Daugherty faced Mayor Oster on a charge similar to that filed against Henderson, with exception of the Ford being stolen from Virgil Vincent, of this city, and he entered a plea of guilty to the charge, whereupon Mayor Oster bound him over to the grand jury.

The record of capturing Ford thieves in this city is above the average, four out of six machines having been recovered.

As a result of the thefts in this city there has been a general scurry after devices to prevent the thefts, and a closer watch is being kept on machines left on the streets.

WILMINGTON LOADS UP FOR FINAL GAME WITH WASHINGTON

That Wilmington is preparing for a battle royal Sunday afternoon when the final game of the series between Washington and Wilmington is played, is evidenced by the accompanying spiel from the Wilmington News:

"According to rumors flying about Wilmington is surely going to have 'some' ball team next Sunday, when the final game in the Washington C. H. series is played. This is the official dope as we get it from one of our scouts:

"Beede' Gaskill has signed up six first basemen, in order to have a plentiful supply. 'Beede' likes 'em large and portly and therefore he hasn't signed up a first sacker under 250 pounds.

"Wayne Jeffers turned a 'hot tip' over to Gaskill, who was doing the scouting. Gaskill called up the player in Dayton, who was said to be the fastest infielder in captivity, but he replied that he is on crutches and had just returned from the funeral of the center fielder that Sharkey had recommended so highly.

"A Cincinnati Reds pitcher that was thought surely to be the one that would certainly land the game, was objected to by John Champlin on the theory that he wasn't fast enough for this company, as he had been able to merely scratch a victory over the New York Giants recently.

Sharkey claims that so many players have been signed for Sunday, that he is going to let the players fill up the stands and put the spectators back to the fence. At last reports three or four full teams had been secured.

"Gaskill made a raid on the Cincinnati Reds Thursday, and the boys claim he even signed up the bat boy and the score card vendor.

"If half of the dope that is going around of this and like tenor is true, it sure is going to be one grand old ball game Sunday."

SLACKER IS TAKEN TO COLUMBUS BY FEDERAL MARSHAL

That outside of the disgrace it does not pay to be a slacker when the country calls for its man power to defend the country's honor and the principles of humanity, was made apparent Saturday morning when Ralph Hall, colored, the only slacker who so far has been unearthed in Fayette county, was taken in charge by United States Deputy Marshal C. M. Wright of Columbus, and taken to Columbus to face the serious charge of endeavoring to evade the draft law.

Hall is the young man who was arrested for stealing brass from The M. Hanna fertilizer works, and who, when asked to show his registration card, admitted that he had not registered, and gave no good excuse for his action.

He has been confined in the county jail for several weeks pending action on the part of both civil and Federal authorities.

Deputy Marshal Wright stated that so far the heaviest sentence meted out to a slacker has been 9 months in prison.

However, the slacker cannot escape this punishment—he is registered and when he comes out of prison, must be examined in his turn and if physically fit, go to the military training camp.

BIG BUILDING IS NEARLY FINISHED

The immense new building of the Dahl-Campbell Branch, the completion of which has been tied up repeatedly by failure to obtain material on time, will soon be ready for occupancy, the great office rooms now receiving the finishing touches.

Early in October the offices will be formally opened, and will be handsome, attractive and most modern of any business concern in this part of the country.

Already part of the new building is being used for storage purposes and the final touches are being applied so that all of it will be ready for use when the change of offices is made from the present location to the new, and the space occupied by the present offices will be used for storage purposes.

30 FAYETTE MEN LEAVE WEDNESDAY FOR CHILLICOTHE

Only White Men Will be Sent in Next Detachment, and Colored Men Will Go Later—Board Must Have Nine Men From the Last 100 Examined.

The Local Board is in receipt of a telegram from Governor Cox ordering the Board to have 30 men ready for departure to the military training camp, Wednesday of next week.

The men will all be white, as in the case of all previous detachments sent to the training camp, and the colored men, it is expected, will form the last portion of Fayette's quota of 85 men.

At the present time the Local Board has 21 men available for the next group of 30 to be sent next week so that at least nine men from the 100 examined this week will be called up on to go to military training camp with the 30 to be sent.

The exact hour had not been set for the departure, but this information was expected later in the day.

So far the number of colored men who are on the "waiting list" is six, and this list will probably be increased several men by the last examination.

The policy of leaving the colored men on the waiting list is one followed throughout the state, and the men will probably form the last detachment from each county.

SEVEN FORDS AND A MULE IN ONE NIGHT

Saturday morning Chief of Police D. L. Moore received eight postals describing seven Fords and one black mule, all stolen in this part of Ohio in one night.

The aforesaid black mule is said to have been attached to a buggy and disappeared from the streets of Chillicothe. A reward of $25 is offered for recovery of Mr. Mule and the buggy.

A reward of $25 to $100 is offered for the stolen Fords.

NEW MARTINSBURG FIRM ON THE MAP

The H. L. Leasure & Company, of New Martinsburg, broom-makers, are preparing to enter into the business upon a larger scale, and recently purchased the Chas. Zimmerman two-story building in that place and will equip it for broom making on a larger scale than ever before.

The firm, composed of Rev. H. L. Leasure and J. G. Roberts, has been growing in the broom business for years, and with the prospect of a greater demand for their product, the purchase of the building was made.

Farmers this year planted more broom corn than usual, so that the Martinsburg plant as well as other small plants in the county will have a good supply of broom corn.

WORK PROGRESSING ON LEESBURG PIKE

The work of rebuilding the Leesburg pike from the end of the present improvement for a distance of 2.29 miles, is now on in real earnest, and the culverts have been completed and preparations made for rapid construction work on the roadway itself.

The improvement, which is being made by Contractor John M. Jones, is to be of water-bound macadam, and will complete the road to the other side of Staunton some distance.

A motor truck will be used beginning the first of the week, and if material is furnished promptly by the railroads, as ordered, the actual construction work will move forward rapidly.

SEQUEL TO AUTO SMASH-UP FRIDAY

There is an interesting sequel to the auto smash-up on North street Friday, when the large Buick car of John Mullenix, of Hillsboro and the Chalmers car of A. C. Henkle, came together.

Mr. Charles Johnson, of the Johnson Auto Sales Company made a deal with Mr. Mullenix whereby Mr. Mullenix became the owner of another Buick and Mr. Johnson the damaged one. A little later in the day Mr. Henkle, dropping in to take a look at the car which had collided with his own, purchased the damaged car.

Washington merchants have it.

MISS LINA WILLIS' STRONG APPEAL FOR THE WELFARE

The Herald is indebted to Miss Lina Willis, former President of the Welfare Association, for the forceful article which follows. Many people do not fully realize the part that this Association has, and is playing in this community. Miss Willis from her active work as an officer of the local Welfare board, and also from her broad experience in settlement work in leading cities, is particularly competent to present this subject of vital interest at the present moment.

One of the biggest responsibilities laid on this country through conditions brought on by the war is the responsibility of holding intact the ground we have gained along social service lines.

Not only must we be interested in the conditions that surround the men who are in training camps and who are at the front but we must continue our interest in the people who are to remain at home and the conditions that surround them. We should not so concentrate our interest on the new work that has been thrust upon us, that we forget the foothold at home, we have worked so hard to gain—that we forget the organization we have tried to develop to better our home environ.

We should not forget that those at home are serving as well as those at the front—and both groups must be worked for. In truth we can not do what should be done for one unless we are doing for the other.

Our efforts to better things at home must go on then in order that that spirit may surge on and inspire the whole community and nation.

HEAVY CLOTH CAPE TO COAT IS USEFUL

Every once in a while, among its fur-trimmed rivals, a cape-coat reminds us that it is possible to be smartly coated and dispense with furs. One of them is shown here with a cape that is abbreviated so that it does not extend across the back, but gives all the impression of a cape just the same. It is the wool velours and its ornamentation is confined to machine stitching and buttons. Such a coat is useful for all round wear. Separate furs may be worn with it when they are needed, and the cape gives it a distinctive military air, adding immensely to its smartness.

that we may say to those at the front—"You defend us and we at home will see that the labor of years to make our nation an advancing nation will not have been in vain.

Yes, the nation's social service work at home must go on. And added to it there has come the opportunity of seeing that the living conditions of those dependent on men at the front are kept up to the right standard.

How can these things best be done? By maintaining the social service organizations that are already in existence, by using the machinery already at hand. Enlarging it if necessary but not duplicating. It is the business of every local community to make their organizations efficient and make them cover any added work that may arise through emergency conditions.

How can Washington C. H. meet this situation,—in maintaining its social service organization—the Welfare Association by making it efficient.

The Welfare Association has done good work for this community, it has never done what it might have done—it has not done all it wanted to do—but it has done good work. It could do better but not without the live, vital support of the community. That support can be given by you becoming a regular subscriber—and doing it now—send your check today to the treasurer, Mrs. C. H. Griffin.

By doing this your help in assuring the continuance of the services of a trained worker in this community; by doing this you make it possible for this community to respond to the nation's request to continue already existing social agencies. It is patriotic—it is economic. Do it now!

The Inevitable End

How much time it will require, what the cost will be in men and treasure no man can tell but that the beginning of the end is at hand in the world war seems certain.

The mastery of offensive fighting on the western front which is the real theatre of war, after all, has been assumed permanently by the British and French. Relentlessly the tremendous pressure of the vast force which the British have mobilized in Flanders and Belgium is being exerted. Stubbornly—contesting every foot by defensive fighting behind extensive fortifications in positions chosen for their natural strategic advantage and by desperate counter attacks following each defeat—the forces of the Kaiser are falling back before the irresistible armies of democracy.

It never did seem possible that the war mad men whom fate had placed in charge of the German forces could succeed in their wild dreams of dominating the world by force. It never did seem possible that freedom's army could be dashed to pieces on the bristling lines of militarism, that cruelty and brute force should triumph, ultimately, over humanity and civilization.

When the unnumbered German hordes, prepared for war, pounded the forts of Belgium to dust, dashed across the French frontier and rolled on almost to the gates of Paris, the world was discouraged. Now since the first mad dash has spent itself and the flood tide of militarism has rolled back to its chosen defenses, with Britain, France and Italy ready and the United States coming rapidly, pushing back out of the strongest defenses they can construct, slowly but surely, with never an inch of ground retaken by their opponents, the red menace to humanity is being beaten back to its confines.

The terror is passing—all the devilish frightfulness which the "Huns" have devised and practiced has failed to check the forces of humanity. The light is growing brighter every day as the blackness of the war cloud recedes.

Courage and determination to "see it through" is all that's required now. It will be hard but each day as victory comes nearer it will be easier.

Speaking of LaFollette

Colonel Roosevelt is now, in his public utterances, devoting most of his time, energy and abilities, to lambasting one Robert M. LaFollette who is at present, drawing the salary of a United States Senator.

It is needless to state that Colonel Roosevelt seems particularly fond of the work he has mapped out for himself and is doing the subject full justice.

The strenuous sage of Oyster Bay appears at his best and popular opinion is in sympathy with just the kind of verbal "hiding" he is giving to LaFollette.

The fact, too, that Colonel Roosevelt has gone right into, what is supposed to be, the enemy's own territory to express his opinion publicly, lends a typical Roosevelt spectacular tinge to the whole affair.

Quick to seize upon every opportunity which offers a chance to increase his popularity, Colonel Roosevelt has made the most of the LaFollette wrong doing and that means that the Wisconsin man is, if not getting all that's coming to him, getting just about as much as any individual can think of and say because Colonel Roosevelt is without a rival in that particular field.

Gloomy Views of Russia

"An American," whose statements to a reporter were published in the press dispatches Friday, expresses an exceedingly gloomy opinion of Russia's future as a fighting force and as an industrial power.

In the opinion of that individual, who has observed conditions closely in the new republic, Russia is out of the war for good. In support of his opinion he cites the almost entire absence of fighting spirit and the lack of discipline in the army save only with the Cossacks and Caucasians.

Apparently the soldiers of Russia have forgotten the main issue and are wholly unmindful of the greatest menace to their freedom—the German autocracy—are contenting themselves with disorders at home, reaping the quick reward which comes of anarchy and looting.

We cannot accept this pessimistic view—we don't want to accept it in the first place. But even casting aside any prejudice of that kind we believe that as soon as the wild fetes celebrating the newly obtained freedom, are concluded by the Russians, that their sober second thought will allow that intense patriotism and kindly disposition, for which the Russians are noted, to obtain full dominion and that the restoration of order will come.

The Russian people are a great and an honest people. They are, as a people law abiding and kindly. Their temperament is not the temperament of people who are disorderly and destructive.

Poetry For Today

BLAME IT ON THE TIRE

He didn't pump it full enough, though all the air is free;
 He left it soft and spongy like, and scooted on with glee;
 He skidded and he gridded and whooped through dust and mire.
 And when it burst
 He cursed and cursed,
 And blamed it on the tire.

He drove it on the street car tracks with confidence superb;
 He scraped it on the lamp posts and he scraped it on the curb;
 He slammed it and he jammed it any way he might desire,
 And when it popped,
 Right out he hopped,
 And blamed it on the tire.

He cut it on some broken glass, but said that didn't hurt;
 He kept right on through sand and mud and filled the cut with dirt.
 It spotted there and rotted there and son he howled in ire,
 When up it blew
 He blew up too,
 And blamed it on the tire.

He put on chains that ground and chewed and gouged into the tread;
 He knew his wheels were out of line,
 "But what of that?" he said.
 He whizzed along and sizzed along,
 he picked up nails and wire,
 And when it banged
 His fists he whanged,
 And blamed it on the tire.

Who is this man? Go ask the boys who meet him every day
 He bores in and he roars in with words of angry fire.
 Though he's to blame,
 It's all the same—
 He blames it on the time.

AUSTRIA IMPATIENT FOR PEACE TERMS

(By American Press)

Zurich, Sept. 29.—Austrian liberals are determined to force the peace question to a practical and decisive plane, according to dispatches received here. In a resolution introduced in the Vienna reichsrath the liberals demand the appointment of a committee to discuss the quickest possible way of bringing the world war to an end.

The resolution, offered on the eve of German Chancellor Michaelis' appearance before the main committee of the reichstag to discuss aspects of Germany's war aims, is considered significant as a hint to Germany that Austria-Hungary is growing impatient of the German government's dodging of the question.

GOVERNOR COX AND WIFE WILL VISIT TROOPS

Ohio's Chief Executive Will Spend Christmas With Boys at Montgomery, and Will be Santa Claus.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., September 29.—Governor and Mrs. James M. Cox announced today that they are going to play Santa Claus for the more than 20,000 Ohio National Guardsmen in training at Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Alabama.

The governor announced that he will spend Christmas with the Ohio boys in the South. He said today he will take charge personally of delivering all Christmas presents to Ohio guardsmen there, and that he will charter a whole train, if necessary, to haul the gifts direct to the camp.

Nearly half of the Christmas presents sent by relatives and friends to the boys on the Mexican border last year were lost in transit, he explained, or never were delivered. Incorrect addresses, uncertainty of relatives and friends to know just how and when to send their gifts were responsible in a large measure.

This year, Governor Cox and the new "First Lady" of the state, want all Christmas presents to reach the Ohio Guardsmen. That's why he's going to take personal charge of the big Christmas party. Following is a tentative outline of the governor's plan:

Receiving depots may be opened in the larger towns and cities where friends and relatives of the boys in khaki may take their gifts, addressed with the soldier's name, his regiment and company. All rivers who can bring their presents to the state house in this city are urged to do so. The state will receipt for every present turned over for delivery.

A clearing house will be provided in Columbus where all the gifts will be assembled and sorted. While there is some uncertainty now just what units are at the Montgomery camp and just what designation each unit has, the governor said announcement likely will be made by the middle of November, at the latest, so that friends and relatives will have no difficulty in knowing just how to address their parcels.

Special cars, or a train if necessary, will be chartered here when all the presents are made up and the governor will travel with this train direct to Montgomery to take charge personally of the delivery of each gift by Christmas eve. Company captains will receipt for all the packages for men in their companies and will be held responsible for delivery of these packages to their men and for receipt by their men for the gifts.

"It is going to be the biggest and happiest Christmas I have ever known," the governor said today. "I hope it may be the same for the boys from

However the reports are not regarded as full assurance that the troops are to move at once.

FILLING THE SILOS FOR THE WINTER

Farmers who have silos are either busy at work filling the silos with ensilage or have completed the work, and as there are scores of big silos in Fayette county, it is estimated that the amount of corn thus taken care of will reach into several thousand acres, or greater than ever before.

The benefits to be derived from ensilage are so great that silos are becoming more and more popular, and this year has witnessed the building of a large number of the "big tubs."

WILMINGTON LOADS UP FOR FINAL GAME

For the final and "crucial" game of the big series between the Washington Athletics and the Wilmington Clintons for the base ball championship of this section, the Athletics will go to Wilmington with practically the same lineup which won from Wilmington 14 to 0 two weeks ago and 26 to 2 from Hillsboro last Sunday.

Wilmington is not content to "stand pat" however, if seemingly reliable information which comes from the quiet old hamlet down in the rolling land of Clinton county is correct.

According to rumor, the Clintons will present Bob Bescher, late with the New York Giants; Nesser, who is known to local fans; Harper, an ex-National League player; Hunter, an ex-Pittsburg "pirate" will play at first, Martin at second, Corwin at short, Purtell at third who last Sunday played third for the Columbus A. A. club against the New York Giants; Reilly, catcher, and either Heironimus or Foley on the hurling hill.

China's Biggest Contribution to Allies Will Be Laborers

Peking, September 28.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—China's first and most important contribution to the cause of the Entente Allies in the war doubtless will be laborers. Before China joined in the war against Germany and Austria, she had already supplied more than 100,000 laborers to France, England and Russia. Coolies for agricultural work dock work have been going to western Europe for nearly two years. Russia has also been drawing from China's inexhaustible supply of labor for Siberian mines and Siberian farms. Now that China is actually in the war, the task of recruiting laborers for work beyond the seas will be far easier. The government will lend a willing hand and competition which hitherto has existed between the various powers in recruiting coolies probably will be eliminated. Of the 400,000,000 persons in China, it is estimated that at least 40,000,000 are men capable of carrying arms or doing some sort of labor directly connected with the war. Of this number 20,000,000 are living within reasonable distance of transportation facilities, and could be mobilized were it necessary. China has such an abundance of men that millions could be spared to the advantage of those remaining at home. Premier Tuan-Chi-jui is enthusiastic about sending an army to Europe. He believes 1,000,000 soldiers could be trained and sent to Europe within six months, were the Allies to supply equipment and officers for general supervision. Figures concerning the actual number of men under arms in China are imperfect and misleading. Each of the provinces has its own army. In addition the central government has many troops. There are probably 500,000 men in all under arms in China at the present time. Perhaps half of these or 250,000 would measure up to the standards of a modern army and be an effective fighting force, if properly equipped and trained for a few months under foreign supervision. Chinese officials, high and low, would welcome an opportunity to send a large army abroad. But China lacks transport for sending troops abroad, and her small arsenals and poorly organized leather and cloth industries made it impossible for her to outfit even a small army. China has the wool, the cotton and the hides necessary to clothe a great army, but she lacks facilities to convert into shoes and clothing. Raw material and labor exist in China in abundance, but there is no effective industrial organization. Should it become necessary China's unlimited labor could furnish much of the clothing for the allied armies, were modern factories erected in China under foreign supervision.

LIBERTY LOAN

BOND SALE TO

OPEN MONDAY

Rousing Drive Planned in Fayette to Give All Citizens Opportunity of Doing Their "Bit"—Opening Gun to be Fired Monday Afternoon at Public Mass Meeting

The formal opening in Fayette county of the campaign for the sale of the second issue of Liberty Loan Bonds will take place Monday afternoon at a meeting called by Chairman C. P. Ballard, of the Fayette Liberty Loan committee.

The meeting is to be held at two o'clock Monday afternoon, in the Probate Judge's office, and will be attended by bankers, lawyers, business and professional men, fraternal organizations, church societies and in fact persons in all walks of life, to organize for the Liberty Loan Drive.

Every man and woman who has the financing of the war at heart, is expected to attend this meeting if at all possible.

Mr. Seufferlee, of Cincinnati, will be present at the meeting and will remain in this county assisting in the campaign until it comes to an end.

The campaign is to be carried into every nook in the city and county and every patriotic and home loving citizen will be called upon. The new bond issue pays 4 per cent on the investment, and the bonds are expected to sell rapidly.

Men from the banks will be put to work Monday, distributing posters for automobile windshields, window posters, buttons and rubber stamps, while the picture shows will announce the campaign, newspapers will carry announcements, and everything possible will be done to advertise the necessity of the assistance in Fayette county.

The new buttons to be distributed to all purchasers of bonds are red, white and blue, with a picture of the Goddess of Liberty and the inscription "I own a Liberty bond."

Committees will make house to house and farm to farm canvasses, and every effort to reach all residents of the city and county will be made. Ministers will urge the purchase of the bonds from the pulpits, and so thoroughly will the Second Liberty Loan Bonds be advertised that there will be no excuse for any man, woman or child not knowing of the fact.

The success of the Liberty Loan is necessary to furnish supplies to the men in the field and equip new armies to save the nation and the world forever from German militarism which knows no law and stops at nothing.

RED CROSS TAG DAY

Picturesque figures on Washington streets today were young girls in the garb of Red Cross nurses doing their "bit" in "Red Cross Tag Day."

The National Red Cross Society had ordered the local Red Cross to furnish 300 knitted sets for soldiers' equipment and the empty treasury contained little with which to purchase the materials. Few indeed were those who did not willingly contribute to the patriotic call. In this community, as in every other, there is a large percentage of people whose lives are bound up in the men who are going out to fight and who are interested in the work of the local Red Cross as it takes its part in the great network of Red Cross organizations throughout the United States, operating directly with the Government in caring for the soldiers.

So everywhere the girls in the Red Cross hoods were seen fastening on the little red cross tags and as the people without a tag became fewer and fewer, correspondingly the money in the boxes kept up a merry jingle. One big hearted man put in his check for twenty-five dollars and there were a few bills, but the smaller contributions, often from those whose giving meant real patriotic sacrifice, swelled the sum total to over $100.

The Washington C. H. chapter is headquarters for all the units throughout the county and its treasury must provide the money for all the materials used by these different units.

In order to buy the materials for garments caller for from time to time by the National Red Cross, people will have to donate again and again.

Wool is very expensive and has to be purchased in large quantities so that it will be necessary for Red Cross workers to make many appeals to the public to carry on this work.

WHEAT DESTROYED BY ENGINE SPARK

Considerable excitement occurred on the Ed Hancock farm on the Dublin Hill road three miles out of New Holland, Saturday morning, when a spark from a threshing engine ignited a rick of wheat, and in a few minutes the rick was a mass of flames.

By the hardest kind of work the men about the threshers removed other wheat and prevented the fire from spreading to five stacks adjoining the one on fire, and held the loss down to about $300.

The threshers were removed in safety, and the conflagration which at first threatened to cause a loss of $2,000 or $3,000 was held down to the minimum.

The surrounding neighborhood was appealed to for help, and a call extended to the New Holland fire department.

WOULD INJURE GERMAN INTERESTS TO STATE AIMS

(By American Press)

Amsterdam, Sept. 29.—That Pope Benedict's peace proposals were inspired by moral seriousness, pure justice and neutrality, which things were lacking in the reply made by President Wilson to the pope, was the declaration of Dr. Michaelis, the German imperial chancellor, in a speech to the main committee of the reichstag.

Justifying Germany's refusal to state her war aims, Dr. Michaelis said such action would only have a confusing effect and would injure German interests. The chancellor said the announced American military actions were awaited by Germany with calm confidence.

Were Germany to state her war aims, the chancellor asserted, it would prejudice the complex questions to be discussed at the time of peace negotiations. The chancellor strongly attacked President Wilson's reply to the pope, which, he asserted, merely bound the German people together more firmly.

Dr. Michaelis dwelt upon "the satisfactory state of our relations with the neutrals," which could not be disturbed, he said, even by the unprecedented exertions of the hostile press. "We greatly deplore," he continued, "the sufferings caused to the neutrals by our enemies' economic war and we are always prepared to assume a share in the provisioning of the neutrals."

"The economic and financial difficulties of France are fast increasing. Still more keenly felt is the economic distress in Italy, with its internal political concomitants. In England, also, the war is exercising its certain, in exorable effect. The deceptive hope of dissension amongst us causes the leading British statesmen to continue to adhere to their war aims, or at least to proclaim such aims as are entirely incompatible with political, economical and vital needs of Germany."

SINN FEIN OUTBREAK

Dublin, Sept. 29.—A police sergeant was shot in the thigh while he was preparing a squad near the courthouse at Cork to charge a crowd which had been making an attack with stones. He had given an order to fix bayonets when five shots were fired. The sergeant fell, seriously wounded. The shooting was the culmination of a night of disorders fomented by Sinn Fein, small groups of whom paraded the streets whistling the Sinn Fein anthems and cheering the Sinn Fein leader, Thomas Ashe, who died in jail. Windows were smashed and five youth received scalp wounds from police batons.

CORNFIELD ONE DAY, BIG CAMP NEXT

Extension of Camp Sherman in Cornfield Is Made in Short Order. Camp Notes.

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., September 29.—A cornfield yesterday; a military camp today.

That's the way it goes in the army game. The experience was actual with members of the third regiment, he only Ohio National Guard outfit at Camp Sherman.

The regiment had to evacuate the barracks to make room for selective draft men last week. Colonel R. L. Hubler and Captain Ward Dabney picked the place for pitching the "under canvas" city of the Third. It mattered little to them that the best site was in the middle of a corn field, rapidly turning yellow and brown for the harvest.

Some 1200 men turned emergency corn cutters and it wasn't ten minutes before a swath several blocks long had as many wide was stripped of vegetation. Up went the conical tents in one big movement—the way they lay to things in the army. Next came the stoves and cots and other things from the barracks. The men had moved in an hour or so to a site a quarter of a mile from their first home.

They spent the night rather makeshift. But the next day a big force of carpenters laid a floor under each tent. At the same time another big force of carpenters started building mess halls. The next move was to call in a force of road-builders. A grader leveled the corn-row hillocks. Behind it came steam rollers. It wasn't long before a string of wagons were dumping loads of gravel—and the Third was a city within itself with its own canvas houses, dining halls, sidewalks, and "paved" streets.

The water and electric light lines were put in while the things were being moved from the barracks. "The fellows are glad to get under canvas," said Colonel Hubler. "It's more like the military than being penned up in a big building, eating and sleeping in it and resting and working in it. Each tent can have its little heater when it gets chilly and the fellows will feel more at home."

Not the least of the novel experiences for many Ohio draft men in the Chillicothe training cantonment is the task of "doing the washing," which includes dish washing as well as clothes washing. Mess kits are always washed by the individual owner but cleaning clothes also is a portion of the day's work because the big army laundry is not yet in operation. When it is started, the fellows will get their washing done for $1.00 a month, or less. Where commercial laundries charge 25 cents for washing khaki trousers and as much for doing khaki blouses, the officers in charge of this new laundry say this work will cost the soldiers only five cents when the government turns laundryman.

Draftees in the Ohio military camp are getting a taste of Nature's best invigorator these days. It is a cold shower bath. The water heaters were not installed in time for the first arrivals to get accommodations with "running hot and cold water." Baths at least three times are required and these were taken in the "ol swimmin' hole" way just as Mother Nature provides.

HOW IT WILL OPEN IN THE FIFTH CITY

(By Associated Press Dispatch)

Cleveland, O., September 29.—Blasts from hundreds of factory whistles, blowing continuously for ten minutes between 9:50 and 10:00 o'clock next Monday morning, will signalize the opening of the second Liberty Loan campaign in this city.

William G. McAdoo, secretary of the treasury will be in Cleveland that day and will deliver three addresses.

ISLE OF PINES IS STORM SWEEP

(By American Press)

New Orleans, Sept. 29.—One steamer and several sailing vessels were sunk, numerous houses were raised and great damage was done to growing crops and fruits by the West Indian hurricane, which struck the Isle of Pines. Advice from Hatabano, situated on the mainland, say it is believed there that many persons perished in the islands, although no definite information regarding the casualties has been received here.

Gulfport, Biloxi, Bay St. Louis, Long Beach and other points along the Mississippi coast came through the tropical hurricane with very little property damage. So far as reported, there was no loss of life.

CONN IS NAMED

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 29.—Harry L. Conn, Van Wert, O., has been appointed Ohio fuel administrator, according to word from Washington. Conn will have general charge of coal and fuel control in Ohio. He will appoint subcommittees throughout the state, the members of which will be directly responsible to him. Conn will be Ohio's representative of Federal Fuel Administrator Garfield. Conn is an attorney. He is 45 years old. Before being admitted to the bar he was court stenographer in the Third judicial district for several years. Soon after his admittance to the bar he was twice elected prosecuting attorney of Van Wert county.

MITCHELL WOULD RUN

(By American Press)

New York, Sept. 29.—Mayor John P. Mitchell, in a statement in response to inquiries as to whether he would be an independent candidate for mayor in view of the apparent certainty that the Republican nomination has been won by William M. Bennett, said he would run if there is a "genuine substantial demand" for him to do so. He would make the fight, he said, in order to keep the city out of the grip of Tammany hall.

HAYWOOD IS AMONG THOSE HELD BY JURY

(By American Press)

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Formal return of a blanket indictment charging a nation-wide conspiracy to hamper the government during the war was made in the United States district court here against 166 leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World. Nearly all were arrested.

Arrests speedily followed the return. Almost before the court proceedings had reached the stage of the discharge of the jury deputy marshals were on their way to the local I. W. W. headquarters in automobiles do-pated and driven by women, and quickly returned to the federal building, bringing prisoners with them.

The first hour 35 men were thus haled into the marshal's office and later were questioned by investigators for the department of justice. Among the first to be taken into custody was William D. Haywood, secretary of the national organization of the I. W. W., who was questioned Sept. 5, when the headquarters of the I. W. W. in various cities were raided by the government.

Commenting on the fact that the indictment was aimed at none but I. W. W. members, Judge Pitts gave this definition of the I. W. W.: "The I. W. W. differs from Socialists and from every form of legitimate labor organization. The I. W. W. is a degenerate; its doctrine is treachery built on the teachings of the employment of secret and covert destructive methods intended to wreck the employer, and through destruction of production and transportation, disable society and the government itself, the object at this time being to render the enemy stronger and our dear country weak in the resistance of that strength."

After he had been questioned by Hinton G. Clabaugh of the department of justice, Haywood was held in default of $25,000 bail. Others also apprehended in Chicago and held in default of $10,000 bail, were: Richard Brazier of Chicago, Spokane and elsewhere, member of the executive board of the I. W. W.; George Andreyevich of Chicago, Duluth and elsewhere, manager of the I. W. W. publicity bureau, Chicago; Ralph E. ## LAY ON, TEDDY!

(By American Press)

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—On the platform of the auditorium where Senator La Follette last week decried America's entry into the war on what he termed a violation of "technical rights," Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, classing the Wisconsin senator among the "Huns within our gates," declared he would like to send La Follette and his "shadow Huns" to Germany as a "free gift to the kaiser." Among the "shadow Huns" the colonel included Senator Gronna of North Dakota and Representative Lundeen of Minnesota. Senator La Follette's assertions that America's participation in the war was due to American citizens' being passengers on "a ship loaded with munitions for Great Britain," was declared by the colonel to be a falsehood, and "he knows it was a falsehood," he added.

FAYETTE PUMPKIN CROP A BUMPER

Pumpkin pies will be plentiful this winter regardless of the high price of other food, and the one who does not have plenty of this popular winter "fruit" will be responsible as the supply was never more plentiful than this season.

Big pumpkins and little pumpkins! red, yellow, black, green, and in fact almost any color one desires, may be found in Fayette's corn fields, and purchased for the proverbial song.

One farmer, growing pumpkins for the New Holland cannery, has 75 acres of corn in which the pumpkins are so thick that he is compelled to haul them out before he can place the wheat drill in operation.

However, in connection with the big crop of pumpkins, it may be stated that a large percentage of them are not yet ripe, and will be all but worthless, although the remainder, already ripe, is expected to prove sufficient to meet all demands.

INCREASE MEAT SUPPLY

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 29.—Facing a world shortage of food animals, the United States food administration has appealed to farmers to live stock producers in Ohio to do their "bit" in restocking farms in this state with cattle, sheep and hogs. An extensive campaign for the redistribution of live stock will be made, according to Fred C. Croxton, federal food administrator for Ohio.

Croxton will co-operate with Clark S. Wheeler, director of agricultural extension work in Ohio, arranging for surveys by the county war food commissioners and county, state and government agricultural agents of both surpluses and shortages of live stock.

COAL SEIZED BY GOVERNOR RADICAL ACT

(By American Press)

Columbus, Sept. 29.—Ignoring federal priority shipping orders, Governor Cox arranged with the Pennsylvania railroad to send a train of coal to Dayton, where the coal shortage is reported acute. The governor's action practically amounts to seizure of coal. State officials regard the seizure as a test of whether or not Ohio is to feel the pinch of a coal shortage while thousands of tons go to the lakes on the way to the northwest. "We must impose upon Dayton the responsibility of giving a price to the consumer based upon $2 a ton at the mine," Cox said.

Governor Cox announced that the state will undertake to direct coal shipments at once to school and hospitals in danger of closing for lack of fuel. At the same time Cox had reports from school boards in 41 cities showing that while nearly all are below the total for the school year, most schools have an adequate supply for the first cold weather.

Reports from more than 40 cities show 19,500 tons of coal on hand and 47,200 needed for the school year. Cincinnati reported 900 tons on hand, 1,500 contracted for and 11,000 required for the winter. Circleville, Delaware, St. Marys and Tiffin reported none on hand. Lorain is well equipped. Youngstown has almost enough Toledo has 9,000 and 3,000 contracted for and Plaqua needs only 76 more tons.

Columbus dealers have no coal in storage and public utilities, industries and homes have less than 25 per cent of their winter's coal in their bins. Streetcars are operating over the lines of the Columbus Railway, Light and Power company at half speed. Complete suspension of service is threatened.

EVERY VOTER WILL SOON RECEIVE COPY PROPOSED CHARTER

Within the next week or ten days every voter in the city will receive a copy of the new proposed charter recently drawn up by the fifteen charter framers elected last month.

It will require about 2200 copies of the charter for Washington voters, and the charter will be issued in pamphlet form and will contain several pages.

It is required by law that copies of the charter be printed for placing in the hands of all voters in the city, so that they may study the proposed charter, and then vote upon it intelligently.

It is expected that when the voters study the various phases of the charter proposed, that they will see its great advantages over the old Federal plan of municipal government, and how it offers a system of conducting the city's affairs such as the old plan never dreamed of.
